

This system architecture is used to provide an efficient, reliable, and secure platform for delivering high-quality spa services to customers. It includes load balancing, application servers connected to database servers, payment gateway, communication layer, firewall, and VPN enabling smooth communication between the different components, protecting the system from unauthorized access.